MORTON GROVE PUBLIC LIBRARY

SEPTEMBER 16 THROUGH OCTOBER 12

ART DISPLAY . . . . . Illinois artists' interpretations of the Sesquicentennial Celebration are displayed in the Library. Over 300 Illinois artists were invited to exhibit work representing their views of the Sesquicentennial at the Golf-Mill Art Fair. The paintings on display in the Library were chosen from among the entries.

DECEMBER 1, SUNDAY, 2 to 4:30 P.M.

OPEN HOUSE . . . . . Old-time movie comedies will be shown continuously in the Adult Reading Room. Photographs and items gathered from long-time residents of Morton Grove will be on display. Frankly nostalgic, in honor of the Sesquicentennial, the program will bring a bit of the past into the present. Library Board members will be on hand to greet you. Refreshments will be served.

FEBRUARY 4, 11, 18, TUESDAYS, 8:00 P.M.

INVESTMENT SERIES . . . . . For the second year, the Library will sponsor a three-lecture series on wise investment. Representatives of Blunt, Ellis, and Simmons will conduct the sessions in the downstairs meeting room.

APRIL 15, TUESDAY, 8:00 P.M.

COLOR FILM . . . . . Miss Vivian Rankin of the Illinois Department of Conservation will show a film about Illinois Parks and Memorials. This is one of many outstanding color films made available by the State for group showings. Downstairs meeting room.

All of the programs listed are open to Morton Grove residents. There is no charge.
